4. The licensee shall be bound by the general conditions applicable to Excise licences and the special condition applicable to country liquor licences, published in the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner's Notification No. 1759-1227, dated the 10th September 1915, so far as they concern him, and by the following conditions which are special to this contract.

5. The privilege conferred extends only to the supply of country liquor of the strength of 25° under proof, and 50° under proof.

6. The licensee shall establish a warehouse at the distillery or such other place as the Collector may appoint and wholesale shops at such places as the Collector may in each case determine to be necessary for the due supply of the district provided that if in any localities other persons open wholesale shops for the issue of the country spirit purchased from the contractors, and the Collector is satisfied that these wholesale shops are sufficient to meet the local requirements, the contractor shall not also be required to maintain wholesale shops at such places.

The following license fees shall be payable:—

- Distillery license (if the Distillery is work d)—Annas eight per L.P. gallon on liquors issued up to 50,000 L.P. gallons and annas six per L.P. Gallons on liquors issued over 50,000 L.P. gallons from Distillery in a year.
- Warehouse license (where the warehouse keeper is working a distillery)—Free.
- Warehouse license (where the warehouse keeper is not working a distillery)—Rs. 500 per annum in advance.
- Wholesale shop license (if worked by distillery or warehouse licensee)—Free.

(e) Wholesale shop license (if worked by any other person)—Rs. 15 per annum in advance.

(ii) In condition 13 for the words "Governor-General-in-Council" the words "President of the Indian Union" shall be substituted.

The warehouse and wholesale shops shall be in buildings approved by the Collector, and country spirit shall not be kept, or issued wholesale except at the above places. Issues from the distillery and the warehouse to wholesale shops shall be on payment of the prescribed rates of Excise Duty into a Government Treasury.

7. The licensee shall supply country spirit of good quality. Samples may be taken by the Collector of Excise Revenue, or such other officer whom he may authorize, of materials, wash and spirit at any time, and such spirit at any time, and such spirit shall be subject to periodical analysis, and the contractor shall take steps to remedy at once such defects in the quality of his spirits as the Collector may consider material. The purchasers shall be entitled to object to the quality of the spirit before taking delivery, but not afterwards. The validity of all such objections shall be decided by the Collector.

8. The Collector of Excise Revenue may require that:—

- (a) The licensee shall keep the stores for holding the fermentation shed or room, etc., and all vessels used for fermentation in thoroughly clean condition.
- (b) The licensee shall conduct fermentation in proper barrels or vats;
- (c) The licensee shall provide a sufficient water supply,
- (d) If the spirit is made from Mahna only the fluid portion shall be sent to still and the heating of the still shall be regular, moderate and not too prolonged. The Collector may also direct that only saccharine material shall be used when fermentation is set up, the soiled vegetable material being previously removed.
- (e) Proper washing in every particular shall be insured.
- (f) The stills shall be fed by gravitation or pump.
- (g) Changes shall be made in the construction of the still.
- (h) Proper arrangements shall be made for the condensation of the alcoholic vapour.
- (i) In the case of pot-stills, the diameter of the worm shall be graduated so that it may progressively diminish in calibre, and its length regulated according to the capacity of the still.
- (j) When the condensing worm is made of copper, care shall be taken to protect the spirit from serious contamination by the copper salts produced by the action of the acid spirits on the metal; and
- (k) Proper safes shall be provided to the stills.

9. Unless the Collector shall specially order otherwise, country spirit shall be issued only to wholesale shop-keepers or retail shop-keepers.

10. Such minimum stock of country spirit as may be fixed by the Collector shall be maintained at each distillery, warehouse or wholesale shop opened by the licensee except towards the close of the lease, when special orders will be issued by the Collector should there be a change of licensee. Whenever the stock falls short of this minimum, the Collector may order in supplies, the cost of which shall be recoverable from the licensee in the manner provided in condition 12.

11. Licensed vendors of the kinds specified in condition 9 shall be entitled to have country spirits issued to them with all reasonable expedition in such quantities and of such authorised strengths as may be required, in the case of issues from distilleries and warehouses on proof of payment into a Government Treasury of the excise duty the rate which may be accepted by the Collector for the supply of the country spirit, and in the case of issues from the contractors wholesale shops on payments to the licensee of the Excise Duty cost price, and an additional four annas per gallon irrespective of strength to cover transport and other expenses. The maximum prices to be charged at wholesale shop opened by persons other than the contractor will be fixed by the Collector. The contract supplier will make his own arrangements for recovering the cost price.

12. Failure to supply country spirit as specified in condition 10 within what the Collector considers a reasonable time, will entail a penalty at the discretion of the Collector, not exceeding Rs. 5 per proof gallon a country spirit not supplied for every day during which the failure continues. In such cases country spirit may be purchased elsewhere by the Collector at his discretion at the risk of the licensee. The penalty, the cost of the country spirit purchased and any loss to Government that may result may be deducted from the amount due to the licensee, if any or from his deposit, or may be recovered under the Land Revenue Regulations, as provided under section 64 of Regulation I of 1915.

13. The Licensee will be at liberty to commence distilling or storing in the bonded warehouse one fortnight before the 1st day of April, but no spirit so stored shall be sold or allowed to pass out of the custody of himself or his servants before that date, unless otherwise permitted by the Collector, in view of outlying wholesale shops being supplied in time. Unless the Collector shall give special orders to the contrary, all spirits shall be stored in vats.

14. The licensee shall be bound to take over at his contract rate, any quantity of spirit of good quality which the outgoing contractors may leave in their warehouse or wholesale shops, not exceeding two months' supply of the tract concerned, and he shall be bound to hand over at the close of his lease at the same rate, such quantity not exceeding two months' supply as the Collector may direct: Provided that the Collector shall give one month's notice of his requirements under this condition. The licensee shall have no claim to compensation from any one on account of the stock of liquor left in shops at the close of the lease. The licensee shall also be bound to take over at valuation to be made by the Collector or such other officer as he may depute for this purpose, all such distillery buildings, plant, vessels, furniture tools, instruments, etc., as the Collector may, for the proper working of the distillery consider expedient and necessary.

15. An account will be taken of the licensee's stock of spirit at the distillery or bounded warehouse at such intervals not being greater than three months as the Collector may direct; and the licensee shall pay to the Government duty at the tariff rate on all spirit which may not be forthcoming, and for which he shall be unable to account to the satisfaction of the Collector in excess of an allowance of 1½ per cent which will be made to him for wastage and calculated annually. This provision is subject to variation under special agreement with reference to condition 12. The allowance made for wastage in transit will be in accordance with the general rules governing the subject.

16. The licensee shall observe and keep all the rules applicable to distilleries and warehouse generally, and to the issue of spirits therefrom as may under the authority of the Excise Regulation I of 1915, or other law for the time being in force and relating to the Excise Revenue be made by the President of Indian Union or by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of Ajmer State.

17. The licensee is prohibited from holding any interest in the retail vend of country spirit or in the vend of other intoxicants in the Ajmer State or from employing any person who has such interest. This prohibition does not extend to the wholesale supply of foreign spirit to persons licensed to possess such.

18. In all matters not expressly provided for herein, the licensee shall accept the ruling of the Collector of Excise Revenue subject to an appeal to the Excise Commissioner whose decision shall be final.

19. Infraction of any of the conditions of the license either by the licensee, or by any person in his employment will entail on the licensee at the discretion of the Collector (a) fine up to Rs. 50 or (b) forfeiture of deposits and cancellation of license and disposal of the privilege at his risk.
